'Outdoorsman' at Saenger on Sunday

There have been several hunting and fishing films released during the past few years but "THE OUTDOORSMAN" coming to the Saenger Theatre starting Sunday is the most thrilling of all. Packed with action, adventure and excitement, "OUTDOORSMAN" is really a spectacle that hunters, fishermen and all sportsmen will greatly enjoy. Even those who do not participate in outdoor sports will find the film of unusual interest as you travel from the calm habitat of the pheasant, goose and duck to the frigid Arctic home of the polar bear or the thunderous paths of the elephant herd.

"THE OUTDOORSMAN" takes you around the hunting and fishing world shooting either by gun, bow and arrow or camera, the most sought after game... bird, animal and fish.

Starting in our own country, you are right at the producer's side, Bill Bryant, as he hunts ducks and geese in the Midwest, then you are led by excellent trained hounds through autumn fields for ring neck pheasant. After a pack train expedition in the Rockies for elk, mountain lion and mule deer, the audience travels through the north country to fish the virgin lakes and rivers. Then you board a plane to fly over the frozen wastes of the Arctic Ocean in search of the high polar bear. For the first time on the screen, you get the sensation of what a thrill it is to get a trophy bear.

NOT SO BAD AFTER ALL

Dear Helen: How can I ever face my father again? It started when I introduced my girl friend's mother to him. I can understand that Dad is lonely since my mother died, but—why must he choose this woman?

Last night Dad announced he was going to marry her. I want to marry her daughter. That would make her my step-mother and mother-in-law, too, and the same goes for my future wife and my father. We all like each other, but:

Can you think of anything more tragic?—JOHN

Dear John: Easily! What if you all hated each other?

So what's the big problem.—H.

Dear Helen: Once again I agree with your answers. I was the type of girl friend who thought it was unmasculine for my fiancé to help in the kitchen or with housework, so when he offered, I told him to go sit down. Well, it was as you said, Helen. After marriage, he had learned his lesson well. (But he made up for it by installing a dishwasher.)

But those Saturday cleaning days made me miserable, and I began to feel very sorry for myself. I felt trapped. I missed my old began roundings, my room mates and other female friends, dates, knowing I couldn't fall in love again. Also, being somewhat of a disappointment.

So I'd "go quiet," and my poor husband didn't know what was happening. This could have led to a break-up, except for the fact that I had a very patient and understanding man. He got me to talk it out, and now we share work and fun.—SHARON

Dear Helen: I have two big problems: My father and mother. Mainly my father. He won't let me have anything I really want. I asked for a pair of white rats that my teacher no longer wanted. He said, "No, they'd multiply." He let me have a hamster, but it just sits there and looks stupid.

Then I wanted a bow and arrow and he said I might hurt someone. Same with a mini-motor bike. I also asked for a B-B gun and a chick incubator. Still, "No!" "Not in the city."

You'd think I was my eight-year-old brother instead of almost 13. How can I get any experience if my parents won't let me have anything?—BILL

Dear Bill: Maybe you could settle for a small dog?—H.

Dear Helen: I am 14 and not allowed to go on dates except with the crowd, like to skating and swimming parties.

One night some girls asked me on a cook-out and said no boys would be there, but I found out different. More boys than girls showed up, and when the party got wild, I mean really wild, I slipped off and ran home.

At school next day the girls told me to keep my mouth shut about what was going on or I'd be sorry. I got strange phone calls and letters afterwards, threatening what would happen if I didn't keep quiet.

Then rumors started up about me, which brought down my popularity a lot. I'm afraid to tell my parents, or I'll be grounded, for they already half-way believe some of the lies. What can I do?—SCARED TO DEATH

Dear Scared: Do now what you should have done the night of the party: Tell your parents the whole story. You'll be blackmailed until these kids know they can no longer scare you.—H.

Jacksonville Spotlight on Big Three

By F.M.T. MACRELY
JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (AP)—Colts' Jimmie "Big Three" are in the spotlight for the Greater Jacksonville Open, but some of the players may stay away from Aronoff Palmer, Jack Nicklaus and Gary Player.

"This is Gator Country," boast thousands of bumper stickers in this University of Florida hotbed. Mostly, they pertain to a strong Gator football team.

But, collegiately speaking, the Florida Gators stand as tall as the local pine forests in the world of professional golf.

When a field of 144 tees off Thursday in quest of a $20,000 first prize, former Florida Gator players such as Frank Beard, Tommy Aaron, Bob Murphy, Doug Sanders and Dan Sikes will be darlings of the gallery.

Sanders and Sikes are former winners of the Jacksonville Open and the others are usually strong challengers.

Murphy, former National Amateur and National Collegiate champion set a rookie money record when he won more than $100,000 on the tour in 1968. He's off to an even faster start this year with $19,529.

"That doesn't indicate how I've been playing, though," he said. "It wasn't until Wednesday's pro-am that my game felt right. That's probably because I just took a lesson from Conrad Rehling (former University of Florida golf coach)."

Murphy tied Palmer and Billy Maxwell with the best individual scores of four-under-par 68. Murphy's team tied for third behind Don January and Kermit Zarley, whose foursomes shot net 15-under-par 57.

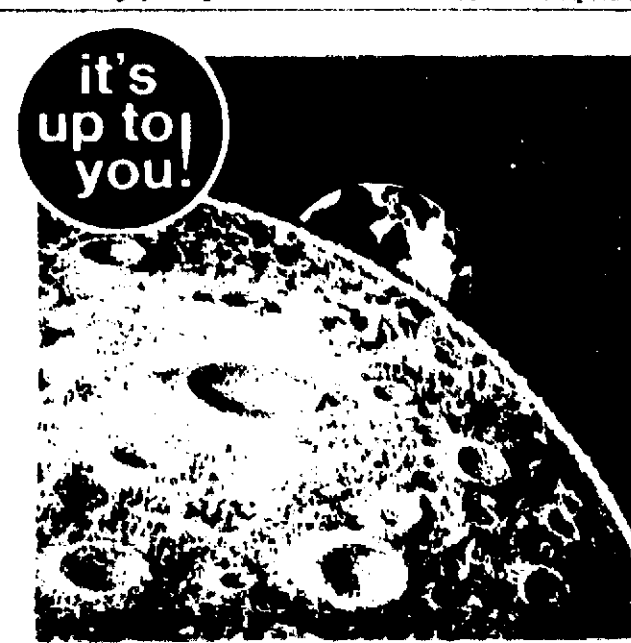

Sikes, the top pro at Hidden Hills Golf Club and more familiar with the course than any of the other 143 entrants, predicts, "Nobody will shoot real low here. A 68 could be the best of the tournament."

He sees Nicklaus, Palmer, Beard and Lee Trevino as the big name players with games suited to Hidden Hills' well-trapped greens and narrow fairways.

Sanders, seventh biggest money winner of all time, isn't even among the top 100 this winter. His most notable achievements of 1970 are being hit in the head by Vice President Spiro Agnew and picking up some gray in his hair.

Aaron, who won his first major tourney in Canada, said he figures it's about time he won in America but doesn't feel he is playing well.

Beard, leading money winner of 1969 and eighth on the all-time list, said, "It would be nice to win here, but I have played better in Florida than I am this year."

Marquette Favored Over Pete

By MIKE RECHT

Associated Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK (AP)—If Pete Maravich had his troubles against highly regarded Georgetown and Oklahoma, how will he do when confronted with another press, put on this time by jackrabbits and cobras?

No, it's not witchcraft, although it might turn out to be a mystery to Maravich and Louisiana State in one of tonight's basketball semifinals of the National Invitation Tournament.

The Tigers, 22-5, must face eighth-ranked Marquette, the tourney favorite with its 10th ranked defense in the country that forces bad passes and bad shots.

"They jump like jackrabbits and they're as quick as cobras," was the way LSU Coach Press Maravich, Pete's father, described the Warriors. "If we play as we did the last two games, they'll run us off the court."

Press referred mostly to the play of his son, a three-time All-American who fell far below his 46.6 point a game average with games of 20 and 37, and also threw away the ball a number of times, although making five and nine assists for a total of 14.

Should the Tigers get by Marquette in the 9 p.m. EST game at Madison Square Garden, waiting for them in Saturday's nationally televised 1 p.m. final would be either St. John's, N.Y., or Army. Army, 52-0, is the nation's best defensive team, and St. John's, 63-6, is eighth.

However, Press Maravich has enough troubles worrying about Marquette, 24-3, after watching his team blow all but two points of a 17-point lead against Oklahoma when the Sooners went into a pressing defense in the quarter-finals.

Al McGuire, the Marquette coach, promised a zone press and a tight man-to-man against LSU, which has been averaging 94.9 points a game, fourth best in the country.

While the LSU-Marquette clash has the glamor, the first game at 7 p.m. between Army and St. John's also should provide plenty of action, bruising action.

St. John's beat Army 54-44 in a small war earlier this season, and Lou Carnesecca, coach of the Redmen, wants this one as a farewell gift—he is leaving after the tournament to coach the New York Nets of the American Basketball Association.

However, instead of emotion, Carnesecca will rely on 6-10 Bill Paulitz and sharp-shooting Joe DePre to cut down the Cadets.

Although the Cadets are little known individually with no starter more than 6-6, Carnesecca knows he is in for trouble.

Clouded Derby Outlook Is Now Clearer

HALLANDALE, Fla. (AP)—A cloudy Kentucky Derby outlook became clearer Wednesday on the flying hoofs of Corn Off the Cob and the thoroughbred world will learn pronto if Silent Screen can hang onto his position as a premier hopeful.

Corn Off the Cob halted past Naskra at the head of the stretch in the $34,950 Fountain of Youth stakes at Gulfstream Park and won by a cozy four lengths.

Corn Off the Cob's triumph followed by two weeks his unexpected runnerup shot in the Flamingo, an event that saw Sonny Werblin's highly-touted Silent Screen fade to eighth behind winner My Dad George.

Silent Screen tries to reestablish himself in today's Caliente Future Book against My Dad George. Silent Screen is the 3-1 favorite and the Flamingo victor was listed in early odds at 5-1.

Baseball Jacksonville Given Edge by Wooden

By TOM SEPPY

Associated Press Sports Writer
WASHINGTON (AP)—Coach John Wooden of defending champion UCLA says he believes Jacksonville University has a slight edge in the NCAA basketball finals but he also wouldn't bet against his Bruins.

In fact, Wooden, whose teams have won five out of the last seven basketball titles, says only one of the four in the tournament has real problems—St. Bonaventure.

"I'm not knocking St. Bonaventure," he told newsmen, "but the loss of Lanier had to hurt them. They have other good boys but it's pretty late for them to change their style."

The Bonnies lost 6-foot-11 All-American Bob Lanier in the regional tournament last Saturday. He underwent surgery Sunday for repair of a torn knee ligament.

"Had St. Bonaventure not lost Lanier, this tournament would have been wide open with no one having the edge," said Wooden, who will be seeking an unprecedented fourth straight. "Now the three other teams appear to be in good shape with Jacksonville having a little break but not much."

Jacksonville, rapidly growing to be the sentimental favorite because it is the Dolphins' first time in the NCAA championship, meets St. Bonaventure tonight in the eastern finals scheduled to begin at 7:40 p.m. EST.

UCLA, which has reeled off 22 straight victories in NCAA tournament play, takes on New Mexico State in the western finals tonight at 8:00 p.m. EST.

The winners of the two games meet Saturday at 4 p.m. EST on national television (NBC) for the NCAA championship.

Jacksonville has won 26 and lost 1 while St. Bonaventure is 25-1. UCLA and New Mexico State sport 26-2 records.

Wooden said he isn't looking past New Mexico State but would like to have a 7-foot Lew Alcindor, who led his UCLA's to their past three titles before going to the Milwaukee Bucks. If he should meet Jacksonville Saturday afternoon.

The Dolphins boast 7-foot-2 Artis Gilmore, 7-foot Pembroke Burrows III, and 6-foot-10 Rod McIntyre.

His primary worry, however, is New Mexico State which, he says, will be looking for revenge. UCLA defeated the Amazins' Aggies, as they like to be called, in the first round of the western regional's last two years.

Joe Williams of Jacksonville said he hasn't looked beyond tonight's game with St. Bonaventure and has no "real information" on UCLA or New Mexico State.

Rice Gets the Title But Not the Statistics

DALLAS, Tex. (AP)—Rice got the championship glory but had none of the records in the final statistical breakdown of the 1969-70 Southwest Conference basketball race.

Southern Methodist's Gene Phillips, The Associated Press Player of the Year in the SWC, set a full-season scoring average record with 684 points. He averaged 28.5 points to better the standard of 28.2 by Dick O'Neal of Texas Christian in 1955. Phillips also beat O'Neal's one-season point total record of 676.

Doug Boyd, TCU's rugged 6-foot-8 center, hauled down 235 rebounds to break by 29 caroms the mark set by Gene Elmore in 1964.

Rice paced the SWC in scoring in loop play with a 75.4 average. All-SWC guard Gary Reist was tops in the SWC from the charity stripe with an 83.5 percent-age.

San Antonio's Trinity Is Favored

HOUSTON (AP)—Trinity of San Antonio was favored today to win its seventh team championship in 12 years as 20 teams from four states began play in the 12th Rice Invitational tennis tournament.

Trinity drew the favorite's role despite Rice having the two top-seeded players in Zan Guerry and Mike Estep.

While the top four players from each school were competing at Rice's new $100,000 Jake Hoss Tennis Stadium, four other players from each school were participating in a second tournament several blocks away.

All Friday through Sunday play will be on the Rice courts. Guerry's opening round opponent was Rusty Powell of Texas Tech. Estep met Joe Whitehouse, also of Tech. Third-ranked Bob McKinley of Trinity met John Matzlevich of Texas Christian.

Other seeded players were Zdravko Mincek of Brigham Young, F. D. Robbins of Utah, Paul Gerken of Trinity, Danny Bleckinger of Utah, and Larry Hall of Brigham Young.

Kennedy, Ranger Game Opens Meet

AMARILLO, Tex. (AP)—John F. Kennedy of Nebraska and Ranger Junior College open the second annual Women's National Collegiate Tournament today.

The Kennedy-Ranger match begins at 2:30 p.m. in the Amarillo Civic Center Coliseum.

Defending champion Wayland Baptist's Flying Queens tackle Kansas State at 4:15 p.m.

Midwestern of Iowa is scheduled to meet West Texas State at 7 p.m. and Ouachita Baptist of Arkansas battles Temple Junior College at 8:45 p.m.

SHE'S GROUNDED, but while a broken leg suffered in a skiing accident may keep her from jumping, Oregon U. cheerleader Sally Wishart continues to give vocal support to the school's basketball team.

Sayers Did Overcome Knee Injury

NEW YORK (AP)—Gale Sayers of the Chicago Bears came back from a knee injury and dethroned Cleveland's Larry Kelly as the National Football League's leading 1969 ground-gainer, according to official NFL statistics released today.

Sayers, who underwent knee surgery in 1968, carried 236 times, more than any other back in the league, and picked up 1,032 yards. Calvin Hill, the Dallas Cowboys' rookie sensation, was runner-up with 942, followed by Baltimore's Tom Matte, 909; Larry Brown of Washington, 888, and Philadelphia's Tom Woodeshick, 831.

Kelly, who led the NFL with 1,239 yards in 1968 and 1,205 in 1967, slipped to seventh with 817 yards on 196 carries.

It was Sayers' second individual rushing crown. He led in 1966 with 1,231 yards.

The Cowboys, for the first time in their 10-year history, took team rushing honors with 2,276 yards. Tony Banker of New Orleans had the best individual average, 4.8 yards per carry.

Matte scored the most rushing touchdowns, 11, breaking Kelly's three-year hold on that title. But Kelly had the best one-game performance, 151 yards against Green Bay, Minnesota's Clint Jones turned in the longest run from scrimmage, 80 yards.

Texas A&I Opens Spring Practice

KINGSVILLE, Tex. (AP)—Head coach Gil Steinke greets 31 lettermen today—weather permitting—as the small college national champion Texas A&I Jayvins launch spring football drills.

Steinke hoped to work the Lone Star Conference championships today, Friday and Saturday and four days next week before taking off a week for spring vacation.

Steinke said much of the spring session will be spent finding replacements for several key positions—most of them in the secondary which was hard hit by graduation.

Several scrimmage games will be played but no dates have been set.

Players Not Excited Over New Ball

By HAL BOCK

Associated Press Sports Writer
They used the Iviller X-15 baseball in spring training again Wednesday and most of the pitchers weren't exactly thrilled with the experiment.

But the new wrinkle didn't mean a thing to old pros Hoyt Wilhelm and Bob Veale. They might as well have been throwing the regulation ball for all the good X-15 did the hitters who swung against them.

Both Wilhelm and Veale hurled five scoreless innings, shrugging off the rabbit ball that hopped all over most other camps. Wilhelm allowed one hit in his stint as Atlanta trimmed Montreal 7-5 while Veale allowed two safeties in his stretch and Pittsburgh topped St. Louis 4-2.

Elsewhere the X-15 ran wild. Washington nipped Kansas City 18-13 in 11 innings. Detroit topped the Chicago White Sox 19-13, Seattle edged Cleveland 19-14 and the Chicago Cubs slipped by Oakland 12-11.

In other more sedate games, Boston topped Philadelphia 6-5, Los Angeles whipped Minnesota 8-2, Houston whacked Cincinnati 10-5, San Diego dropped California 8-5, the New York Yankees slugged the New York Mets 8-1 and Baltimore defeated the Mexico City Tigers 9-4.

Wilhelm, who'll celebrate his 47th birthday at mid-season, knuckled the life out of the X-15 and the Montreal Expos.

He protected a two-run lead produced by Mike Lum's pinch triple in the sixth inning, and allowed only two base-runners in his stint. Coco Laboy homered for the Expos.

Veale also worked five innings in the Pirates' victory, allowing just two hits and striking out three. Dave Cash homered for Pittsburgh.

The Cardinals, who learned earlier in the day of the loss of third baseman Mike Shannon with a serious kidney ailment, gained some solace from a home run by Rich Allen, who was making his St. Louis debut.

Washington scored five times in the 11th inning to beat Kansas City. Rookie Tom Grive drove in four runs for the Senators, two in the 11th, and Ed Brinkman, who has had three lead over Czechoslovakia, Finland and Sweden, all tied for second.

Soviet Hockey Team Gets Revenge

STOCKHOLM (AP)—Russia's powerful ice hockey team waited a year but finally got revenge against Czechoslovakia.

The Soviets avenged two defeats in the 1969 tournaments by defeating the Czechs 3-1 Wednesday in the World Hockey Championships. That gave the unbeaten Russians a four-point lead over Czechoslovakia, Finland and Sweden, all tied for second.

Nate Colbert collected four RBIs with a double and two singles for San Diego with Raphael Robles adding four singles as the Padres trimmed California.

Pitcher Fritz Peterson allowed two hits in six innings and rapped his first home run ever, helping the Yankees defeat the Mets. Rookie Thurman Munson also homered for the winners.

Denise Menke and Joe Pepitone tagged back-to-back homers helping Houston past Cincinnati. Tony Perez connected for the Reds.

New Manager Takes Charge of Athletics

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer
FORT MYERS, FLA. (AP)—Charlie Metro, the new manager of the Kansas City A's, has the reputation of being a combination of Capt. Bligh, Gen. Patton and Capt. Hook. He says it isn't necessarily so.

"Nobody stands around in our camp," said Metro, who moved up from director of player procurement to manager when Joe Gordon quit. "The players are asked to work. I am no believer in standing around, if that makes me a Capt. Bligh okay."

Metro said he has one system of handling manager-player relations. "You tell them what you want done," he said, "if you can't take orders."

His voice trailed off and he reached into his pocket for a copy of baseball's playing rules. "We have to play under rules, don't we?" he asked.

The Royals, picked to fight it out with Seattle for last place in the American League West, not only beat out Seattle by seven games but finished fourth, one game ahead of the Chicago White Sox. They were only two games behind the third-place California Angels.

Metro, who has managed in the minors for years and also ran the Chicago Cubs under the old revolving coach system in part of the 1962 season, has intimate knowledge of the capabilities of every man in camp.

The Royals operated on the old "sink or swim" system in their first year last season. They threw the kids into the big league pool and kept throwing them in again and again until they learned to swim.

"Bill Butler was a relief pitcher in Double A at Montgomery," said Metro. "But he has one of the finest arms I ever saw. He's only 22 but he won nine games. We could have made a terrible mistake on Dick Drago. The first time he pitched he gave up 11 hits and nine runs but we stuck with him and he turned around and did some great pitching and won 11 games."

Butler, Drago and ex-Baltimore Oriole Wally Bunker are the established starters. Roger Nelson (No. 1 in the expansion draft), Mike Hedlund (only 23), Jim Rooker and ex-Red Sox Dave Morehead are potential starters. As is Bob Johnson, who came from the New York Mets with Amos Otis in the Joe Foy deal. But he may start out in the bullpen with Moe Drabowsky.

Otis is a key man because the Royals gave up an established regular, Foy, to get him. Handcapped early by a kidney ailment Otis will get every chance in center field where young Scott Northey, Ron Northey's son, is the competition. Lou Pinella, rookie of the year, is the left fielder and Pat Kelly is in right.

The infield in unsettled except for shortstop where Jack Hernandez is established. Mike Flore and Bob Oliver are contending for first. Luis Alcaraz, up from Omaha after a 301 year, is trying to oust 33-year-old Jerry Adair from second. Paul Schaaf and ex-outfielder Ed Kirkpatrick are battling for third.

Elie Rodriguez and John Martinez probably will handle the catching with Hawk Taylor or Dennis Paepke in reserve.

Cypress King Assigned Top Weight

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP)—Cypress King has been assigned top weight of 123 pounds for today's $5,500 feature race at Oaklawn Park.

The six-furlong event has also attracted a Lightning J. Stable entry of Sanda Charger and Featherwood. Sanda Charger, winner of his last outing, has been assigned 113 pounds and Featherwood is to carry 108.

Rounding out the field are Ding Ho Danny (113), Able Secretary (113), Rock Sun (113), Royal Pine (108), Marteau (106), Clifford R (113), Without End (113) and Bold Brick (113). Black Chaparral, trained by Angelo Cillo and ridden by Ruben Martinez, scored a four-length victory over I'm In Favor in Wednesday's $5,500 feature race.

Black Chaparral, owned by E. C. Lizio, covered the one mile and 70 yards of slow track in 1:46. The winner returned $27.20, $9.40 and $5.20.

I'm In Favor paid $7.80 and $4.80 and Skee Ruler, the show horse, paid $3.80.

Black Chaparral completed a riding double for Martinez who was aboard Sovereign Man in the sixth. Larry Snyder scored on She Is Gorgeous in the first and Blue Chelron in the fifth and James McKnight won with Jesse Lou in the third and Joy Street in the ninth.

She Is Gorgeous and Lucky Para Dice, winner of the second race, paid a daily double of $280.80.

Wednesday's crowd of 9,473 wagered $837,997.

Boston Celtics Won and Lost Wednesday

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The Boston Celtics won, and lost Wednesday night. The Los Angeles Lakers lost, and won. The final score of the National Basketball Association contest between the two teams that fought it out for the NBA championship last season was Boston 137, Los Angeles 122.

By winning, the Celtics took another step towards losing the first draft pick. And although they lost, the Lakers unveiled a towering 7-foot center named Wilton Norman Chamberlain.

Big Will, who injured a knee last Nov. 7 and underwent surgery, returned to action for 23 minutes as he warmed up for the playoffs which start next week. He scored 15 points and pulled down nine rebounds.

Jerry West scored 36 points for the Lakers and Happy Hairston added 31 but it wasn't enough to prevent them from falling two games behind front-running Atlanta in the Western Division as the Hawks clinched at least a tie for the flag.

Larry Siegfried paced Boston with 36 points and John Havlicek had 22.

In other action, runner-up Milwaukee knocked off New York's Eastern champion Knicks 116-108 and Philadelphia beat Baltimore 119-113.

In the American Basketball Association, it was Washington 135, Pittsburgh 129; Denver 128, Indiana 112 and Los Angeles 24, New Orleans 115 in double overtime.

Low Alcindor paced Milwaukee over the Knicks with 26 points and a devastating defensive performance, although teammate Flynn Robinson took scoring honors with 29. Cazzie Russell topped the Knicks with 18 as Willis Reed and Dave DeBusschere rested much of the time and Walt Frazier sat out with a groin injury.

Four 76ers scored 20 or more points in the victory over Baltimore. Hal Greer led the way with 27, Wally Jones and Luke Jackson had 24 apiece and Billy Cunningham 20. Earl Monroe topped the Bullets with 22.

Hawks In High Gear at the Right Time

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
For a team that started the season in reverse, the Chicago Black Hawks certainly shifted into high gear at the right time. The Hawks, zeroing in on first place in the National Hockey League's East Division, stretched their unbeaten string to eight games with a 7-4 victory over Toronto Wednesday night as Bobby Hull exploded for two goals and three assists. That moved Chicago within one point of idle Boston and kept the Hawks one ahead of a third-place Detroit, which whipped Minnesota 6-2.

New York, which dipped to fourth during a nine-game winless streak, ended the dry spell with a 2-0 victory over Pittsburgh while Montreal, fifth in the red-hot East race, tied Oakland 2-2.

Chicago started the season without Hull and lost six of its first eight games, picking up only three of a possible 16 points in that stretch with one victory and one tie.

But Hull straightened out his differences with the front office. Stan Mikita exploded his way out of an early slump and Chicago began reversing the trend about mid-season. A six-player trade with Los Angeles added goalie Gerry Desjardins and defenseman Bill White late last month and ever since, the Hawks have been one of the hottest teams in the league.

Hull scored their first two goals against the last-place Leafs, increasing his total for the season to 34—a healthy amount for a guy who missed the first month of action. Chico Maki added a goal and three assists for Chicago.

Detroit stayed hot on the Hawks' trail by downing Minnesota with three second-period goals turning the tide. The Red Wings, unbeaten in their last 10 games, ganged up on goalie Gump Worsley, who lost his first game in five appearances in goal for the North Stars.

Frank Mahovlich's short-handed goal started Detroit's comeback and after Wayne Connelly and Gordie Howe had giv-

For Potato Pancakes

By ALBERT CLARE
NCA Food Editor

Greater emphasis is put upon nutrition in the United States and in many other nations than ever before. Actually nutrition represents a "last" way to approach daily eating and shouldn't put off youngsters as being forced to eat "your spinach and peas" because they're good for you! admonitions once did.

Nutrition is "the sum of the processes by which an animal (man) or plant takes in and utilizes food substances."

Today's concern among health/nutrition experts is that too many are taking in a lot of "empty calorie" foods and not enough "sum and substance." Being overly diet-conscious without finding out what you can eat that is enjoyable, nutritious and less fattening is a basic problem.

For example, many cut potatoes from the diet although the plentiful tuber is chock-full of things like vitamin C and when baked adds fewer than 90 calories to a meal (minus globs of butter).

Serve fresh potato pancakes with ham or sausages and a canned or fresh grapefruit compote for a well-balanced family meal, one that men especially will enjoy.

FRESH POTATO PANCAKES

2 pounds potatoes (about 4 medium-sized)
1 small onion, peeled
1 egg
3 tablespoons flour
Dash pepper
Salt oil

Pare potatoes. Grate on fine grater. Pour off excess liquid, if necessary. Grate onion into potatoes. Mix in egg, flour, salt and pepper. Heat oil in skillet; drop batter into oil. Fry over medium heat until crisp and golden brown on both sides. Turn once. Drain on absorbent paper. Makes about 10 4-inch pancakes.

FRESH POTATO SAUSAGE SKILLET

1 pound Italian-style sausages
4 medium-sized potatoes, peeled and thinly sliced
3 large green peppers, cut into strips
2 medium-sized onions, sliced
1 teaspoon salt
Dash pepper

Place sausages in cold large skillet. Brown slowly on all sides. Pour off all but 1 tablespoon drippings. Add potatoes, green peppers and onions to sausage. Sprinkle salt and pepper over ingredients in skillet. Cover and cook slowly 20 minutes. Makes about 4 servings.

Fallen tresses feeding the wig machine

By MEHR KAMAL
KARACHI (UPI) Modern Pakistani girls are trimming off their long hair and hairdressers are gathering up the locks as a new export item.

The major buyers of Pakistan's shorn locks are South Korea, the United States, the Netherlands and Hong Kong.

Last year, Pakistan exported U.S. $500,000 worth of hair to those four regions with the bulk of the export going to South Korea.

Export circles believe that sale of human hair to South Korea was worth $1 million by the end of 1969, and that the figure is likely to double in 1970.

In Pakistan, hair is a traditional symbol of feminine beauty. For centuries, women have prided themselves on their beautiful black locks, combed and cared for with lotions and exotic ointments.

But Pakistan is looking westward.

The country's fashion designers seek inspiration from the latest line in western styles. Conservative Pakistani males seem not to have accepted the new hairstyles.

The word "maundy" is an English corruption of the Latin "mandatum." Holy Thursday was called Maundy Thursday from "dies mandati," the day of the mandate, from the direction Jesus Christ gave that evening to his followers: "A new commandment—that ye love one another."

Maundy Thursday

Farm Ponds Should Be Fertilized

Farm ponds warmed by spring sunshine are beginning to stir with tiny plant and animal life, a signal that it is time again to start a fish pond fertilization program in Hempstead county according to George F. Brown, district conservationist.

These small plants and animals are essential elements in the fish food chain, and there is no better way to increase production than by boosting the natural fertility of ponds and reservoirs with regular applications of commercial fertilizer.

Fertilization, along with the deepening of shallow pond edges, also, is the most practical way to control aquatic weeds.

George F. Brown estimated that 2000 ponds in the county need treatment and suggested that 16-16-4 is the best formula of fertilizer to use. Starting in March, ponds should be fertilized with 50 pounds per acre at seven to ten day intervals until a blue-green color appears. Early fertilization is important because bluegills and redears make their fastest growth in March, April, and May. Use of fertilizer platforms increases efficiency about 25 percent.

When the water clears enough that a white object can be seen at a depth of 18 inches, applications should be repeated and may continue until first fall frost.

Ponds where catfish are regularly fed pellets should not be fertilized. Where bass, bream, and catfish are stocked in combination, the population gets out of balance quickly if catfish pellets are fed.

Interested pond owners may obtain more information on pond management and catfish farming at the local Soil Conservation Service Office.

Profile on Pentagon's Knowlton

By BOB HORTON
AP Military Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Pentagon has chosen a scholarly, combat-decorated general with previous West Point experience to take charge of the U.S. Military Academy in the wake of the My Lai scandal.

He is Maj. Gen. William A. Knowlton, 49, now serving in one of the Army's key jobs in the Pentagon as general staff officer to Army Secretary Stanley Resor.

Knowlton replaces Maj. Gen. Samuel Koster, who stepped down as academy superintendent after being charged with suppressing information about the alleged massacre of South Vietnamese civilians in 1968.

He is no stranger to the academy, having graduated from West Point in 1943, ranking seventh in a class of more than 400. Knowlton returned in 1955 for a three-year stint to teach courses in economics and international relations.

Furthermore, Knowlton will be able to tell the 4,700 cadets at West Point what the Vietnam War is all about. He went there in August 1966 for a 17-month assignment in headquarters of the U.S. Command, working closely with the program to improve security against the Viet Cong.

Commerce Group Plans Hearings

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The state Commerce Commission will begin hearings Monday at the state Capitol on a request for two rate increases for railroads hauling freight between Arkansas points.

The 26 railroads that operate in the state are seeking the rate increases.

One request is for an increase of 3 per cent on most freight and up to 10 per cent on a few articles. The federal Interstate Commerce Commission granted a similar increase on interstate shipments in 1968.

The railroads are also asking for a 6 per cent increase in rates to match an increase granted in 1969 by the Interstate Commerce Commission.

Cook Charged in Murder Aboard Plane

BOSTON (AP) — U.S. Atty. Herbert F. Travers Jr. says a short order cook charged with murder in the aerial gunshot slaying of an airliner copilot also may be accused under the federal Air Piracy Act.

Conviction on either charge could bring a death penalty. The alleged assailant, John J. DiVivo, 27, of West New York, N.J., remained under heavy sedation at Massachusetts General Hospital after removal of a bullet from his stomach Wednesday. He also was wounded in the chest and right arm during the mid-air cockpit struggle on an Eastern Airlines plane Tuesday night.

Doctors described his condition as satisfactory. Also in satisfactory condition was pilot Robert M. Wilbur Jr., 37, of Fair Lawn, N.J., who landed the twin-jet DC-9, carrying 66 passengers and a crew of five, at Logan International Airport although shot in both arms.

Thinks Tight Money Supply Is Easing

WASHINGTON (AP) — Federal Reserve Chairman Arthur Burns says the tight money supply is easing, but refuses to confirm reports the chances of a recession are nil.

Burns told the Senate Banking and Commerce Committee he looks at the Federal Reserve's weekly money supply report to be released today for predicting the currency in the hands of the public and bank demand deposits are increasing.

But he contradicted a recent statement by House Minority Leader Gerald Ford that the chances for a recession are "nil" and that inflation has been "defeated."

"No, I don't think the problem of inflation is at an end," Burns said. "Nor can I say there is no danger of a recession."

Biggest Brothel is Shut Down

RENO, Nev. (AP) — Revenue men shut down Nevada's biggest brothel because liquor was sold without payment of a $50 federal tax stamp, the government says.

Owner Joe Conforte called it "the most dastardly single act in the history of the Internal Revenue Service" and moved his girls from a trailer cluster at Mustang Ranch, 15 miles east of Reno, to a nearby location.

The IRS said agents seized property and ordered the girls to leave Tuesday night.

Brothels are legal in some parts of Nevada, although local authorities can close them if they are deemed a public nuisance.

Records of Firm Are Subpoenaed

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — State Securities Commissioner William F. Sherman said Wednesday that he had subpoenaed the books and records of La-Co, Inc., of Little Rock for examination.

Sherman said his office is investigating La-Co and two predecessor firms, DBS, Inc., and Napar Chemical Corp., to determine if the firms violated Arkansas securities laws in the sale of stock.

Sherman said Jack F. Files, attorney for La-Co, had refused to release the firm's books and records until Harlan Lane, board chairman and chief executive officer of the firm, returns to Little Rock. Sherman said he is in contact with Lane today.

In another development, U.S. District Court Judge J. Smith Brady took a preliminary injunction to prevent La-Co from disposing of its assets without court approval.

The bankruptcy court in Little Rock, N.J., has ordered the firm to file a plan of reorganization. The bankruptcy court has also ordered the firm to file a plan of reorganization. The bankruptcy court has also ordered the firm to file a plan of reorganization.

East Germany Welcomes Willie Brandt

By HENRIK R. HEDBOM
Associated Press Writer

BERLIN (AP) — East Germany today warmly welcomed West German Chancellor Willy Brandt, who arrived in the capital to begin his first visit to the communist state since the 1961 Berlin Wall was built.

Brandt, 61, broke his left arm and suffered other lesser injuries, sources in his division said. He was reported in good condition. The other five injured men were reported in fair to good condition, most of them with lesser injuries than the general, but all were suffering from exposure to rain and cold after waiting all night on the mountainside.

Rail Union Again Refuses to Negotiate

By NEIL GILBRIDE
AP Labor Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — A new government effort to peacefully settle the nationwide railroad labor dispute before a congressional strike ban expires fell through when the key union again refused to negotiate.

Vice President J. W. O'Brien of the AFL-CIO Sheet Metal Workers told Assistant Secretary of Labor W. J. Usery such talks were futile unless the railroad industry improved the offer his union members turned down.

O'Brien, in a telegram to Usery refusing to attend Wednesday's talks, also said no Labor Department official could act as an unbiased mediator because President Nixon has asked Congress to impose a mandatory settlement. He had also refused to attend a March 6 meeting called by Usery.

O'Brien and negotiators for three other unions in the dispute had tentatively accepted the Dec. 4 proposal for a 68-cent hike in current wages of $3.60 per hour and a change in job jurisdiction rules.

Members of the three other unions representing machinists, electricians and boilermakers voted to accept the proposal, but the sheet metal workers voted it down out of fear the jurisdiction rule would cost them many jobs. The sheet metal workers, with some 6,000 rail workers, is the smallest of the four unions in the dispute.

Nixon asked Congress to impose as binding the Dec. 4 tentative agreement for the rest of this year, but Congress instead enacted a 37-day ban against any strike until April 11.

Secretary of Labor George P. Shultz has been summoned to testify before the House Commerce Committee Monday on the Nixon proposal and other aspects of the 15-month-old dispute.

"Just because the President sent a message to Congress doesn't mean you can't mediate a dispute," Usery said in reply to O'Brien.

Usery met some 40 minutes with representatives of the industry and the other three unions. Chief industry negotiator John P. Hiltz said "We are still exploring things but without the principal guy here, it's pretty difficult."

He has refused to accept the offer of the three other unions to accept the proposed agreement on grounds it would do no good unless all four unions accept it.

U.S. General Injured in Plane Crash

SAIGON (AP) — A helicopter carrying the commanding general of the U.S. Army's Americal Division crashed on a jungle hillside two days ago, killing two men and injuring the general and the other five persons aboard, the U.S. Command announced today.

The command also announced that 161 U.S. troops were killed in action last week and 620 wounded. It was the second week this year that the number of American battle dead exceeded 100.

The Americal Division's commander, Maj. Gen. Lloyd B. Bristow, and other survivors of the helicopter crash were rescued Wednesday after an all-night ground and air search. Helicopters lowered medical personnel to them on slings through a 100-foot double canopy of jungle trees because the choppers could not land. Then the survivors and the two bodies were lifted out in helicopter slings.

Pattsey, 51, broke his left arm and suffered other lesser injuries, sources in his division said. He was reported in good condition. The other five injured men were reported in fair to good condition, most of them with lesser injuries than the general, but all were suffering from exposure to rain and cold after waiting all night on the mountainside.

They were hospitalized in Chu Lai, the division's headquarters on the coast seven miles east of the crash site.

111 S. MAIN ST. HOPE, ARK.

By DICK KLEINER
Hollywood Correspondent

NASHVILLE, Tenn. — (NEA)—Maybe it was a typical evening in a Nashville recording company office. Maybe not. Only Nashvillites would really know.

The office was crowded. There were the producers, the promotion people, the musicians. They drank Pepsi and Jack Daniels and there were five-pound boxes of pistachio nuts placed strategically around the room for munching.

They were there to hear some tapes of a blues wailer named David Coe.

Coe is 30 now. Most of his life, from the time he was nine, has been spent in prison. His list of prison terms and aliases takes awhile to read. He has 365 tattoos on his body—on his back, he says, is "I Died in Prison," which counts as 13.

Everybody listened attentively. Coe, they conclude, has a good shot at it.

Then they moved across an alley to the recording studio, where there was an overdubbing session. Sherry Dinning had already cut her record, but the producer decided there should be some violins added.

Three violinists sat in the studio. The middle one was a black man named Brenton Banks, who looked like Uncle Remus. He had been the head of the music department at Tennessee A & I, but he makes so much money recording that he can't afford to go back to teaching.

"That's too high," the producer said, stopping the session. "That note was too high. It screamed. I keep seeing a bunch of dogs coming in the door. Bring it down two octaves."

The song was something about a girl who had been raped. Most country music songs tell stories. It has always been that way, but it's changing.

"Country songs," says singer Ed Bruce, "used to be 'You-Left-Me-Along-Little-Darlin' - I'll Shoot - Myself.' Now the songs delve more into consequences. It's not so much 'You-Broke-My-Heart any more. Now it's 'You-Broke-My-Mind.'"

That is probably the only way country music is changing, however. Of all forms of entertainment, probably only country music and grand opera are so formalized and traditionalized.

"Take Johnny Cash," says booker Hubert Long. "He hasn't changed or improved in 15 years. The reason that he's so popular now is that the population has increased and the public's taste has broadened. He's the same—only now there are more people who appreciate him."

Cash is supposed to do only 50 dates a year—and plays for a $50,000 guarantee at each date. Jerry Lee Lewis, who saw that the grass was greener in country than rock, where he started, is believed to have scheduled 321 one-nighters in '70 and averages $2,000 each night.

CLOVERLEAF JUNCTION, a massive elevated structure, will link central London to outlying areas. It's part of the city's $70.2-million Western Avenue extension.

Environment Council Goes Into Action

By STAN BENJAMIN
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — With an almost unnoticed stroke of the pen, President Nixon has turned his new Environmental Quality Council from a study-and-report staff into muscled, direct action agency.

Unlike the long-established Council of Economic Advisers, with which it is most often compared, Nixon signed an order March 5 giving the environmental group the power to supervise the environment side of all federal activities.

The order further directed the three-man council to coordinate all related government programs, "seek resolution of significant environmental issues" and "issue . . . instructions to agencies . . . as may be required to carry out the council's responsibilities."

The President's order "is really a very strong document," Russell E. Train, the environment council's chairman said, a sentiment echoed by Bert Cox, aide to the chairman of the oft-compared Council of Economic Advisers.

Even before his March 5 order, Nixon clearly indicated he wanted the council in a more active role. Jan. 29, as he announced the three members, the President said the agency would coordinate federal environmental programs and recommend appropriate organizational changes; and issue guidelines to require all government programs take environment into account.

In effect, Nixon had yanked the council out of the advisory airchair and into the arena of action and power.

Train said while the environment council would recognize the jurisdiction of other federal groups and would draw on their staffs and resources, he emphasized his council's mandate to "coordinate federal programs" and to issue instructions to other agencies.

Says Money Going to Revolt Groups

A local citizen complained to The Star last Saturday, March 14, that young folks were driving into the parking area reserved for staff cars behind The Star Building when the area is vacant on Saturdays and were conducting themselves in a disorderly manner. He fixed the hour last Saturday, March 14, at 10:30 a.m.

I told him to put city police on notice, which he did, and Wednesday I asked the police to patrol the area each Saturday and guaranteed that if any arrests were made I would sign the complaint.

The area in question is private property rented to The Star for staff use only. It is vacant after 10 a.m. on Saturdays because the newspaper goes to press early on Saturdays and staff cars are gone.

But it's private property and trespassers will be arrested. This is fair warning that city police have been asked to patrol it regularly on Saturdays—an obligation to prevent a parking facility from becoming a public nuisance.

An Associated Press dispatch which arrived here from Washington March 17 but was crowded out of The Star that day and not published until Wednesday, March 18, reported an auto safety study conducted by the U.S. Senate concluded small, low-priced cars are not as safe in highway crashes as the heavier, more expensive cars.

This may be true. But no car is actually safe in an accident, and I think the Senate investigators might have included in their report the obvious fact that some of the big cars have models designed to expedite driver suicide.

I refer to the so-called hardtops which have no center support for the roof, which too often collapses when the vehicle is overturned in a wreck.

I have always felt that such models should be prohibited at the point of manufacture. A safer car is the four-poster sedan, or better still, a six-poster station wagon.

The Senate investigating team overlooked the foregoing—but politicians seldom recognize the obvious.

While Cambodia's head of state, Prince Norodom Sihanouk, was in Moscow and planning to visit Peking seeking military aid from the Communist powers, the Cambodian parliament overthrew him and set up a conservative regime.

It may be speculation on this writer's part, but I can't help guessing that our CIA (Central Intelligence Agency) had a hand in this manipulation. And if this be true, congratulations!

Infiltrating a country which most of the time plays footsie with the Communists means that the United States is only doing now what the enemy has been doing from the beginning.

It's a better deal for the U.S. to commit influence, money, and supplies, rather than men, to a foreign war.

Maybe we're getting smart after trying out stupidity.

If it's an Indian war you are fighting the common-sense policy is to save your manpower by hiding behind a money tree.

Taxpayers Committee for Equalization to Meet Here March 24

The "Taxpayers Committee for Equalization" has called a meeting for Tuesday evening, March 24th, at 7:00 p.m. at the City Hall Courtroom, according to Arthur Strech, Chairman.

Joe Burlingame, director of the assessment coordination division of the Arkansas public service commission will discuss that divisions proposal for a county-wide equalization program for Hempstead County, according to Mr. Strech. Speakers will include Mr. Bill Holliday, Mayor of Nashville, Arkansas, and Mr. Dwight Jones, superintendent of schools in Nashville. Howard county initiated such an equalization program nearly two years ago and the latter two speakers will discuss the results of their equalization program to date.

During the recent school election in Hempstead County, Mr. Strech pledged the support of "the taxpayers committee for equalization" in an effort to establish an equalization program in Hempstead County.

"The defeat of the millage increase proposal by the electorate in last week's election was a mandate from the people for a fair and equitable program or assessment for all the people", according to Mr. Strech.

It was further pointed out, by Mr. Strech, that Howard county was one of several counties who initiated this equalization program during the past two to three years and they, Howard county, announced recently that revenues had increased more than $180,000. This year over last year due to this equalization of the taxing program. Nashville voted a 5 mill drop in last weeks election and Mineral Springs also voted a 5 mill decrease.

The taxpayers committee for equalization wishes to emphasize that the meeting next Tuesday

Charges Pressure Has U.S. Soft Peddling Auto Safety Standards

By FRANK MURRAY
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — A Maryland official today accused the federal government of soft peddling safety standards for motor vehicles in the face of "pressures from large industry."

Ejner J. Johnson told a Senate subcommittee the federal action undercut tough tire standards "for which Maryland, New Jersey, Florida and Kansas fought so hard" and almost wiped out New Hampshire and Vermont bans on a device called the "Super-lite."

Johnson, deputy commissioner of Motor Vehicles in Maryland and member of the transportation committee of the National Conference of Governors, made his remarks in testimony prepared for the Senate Antitrust and Monopoly subcommittee studying auto repairs and warranties. The long series of hearings was to end today.

Johnson called for an end to the rule that allows the federal government to wipe out rigid state regulations by establishing a national safety standard less restrictive than state's.

He said that rule "stems from the suspicion that individual states are more susceptible to pressures from large industry and, therefore, standards that are established may reflect industry wishes rather than the best interests of public safety."

"The experiences of Maryland with tires and New Hampshire and Vermont with lights indicates just the opposite," Johnson said. "Many states have developed an aggressiveness in these areas that exceeds that of the federal government."

The National Safety Council, meanwhile, filed for the hearing

Mailmen in Three States Join Strike

By BOB MONROE
Associated Press Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Letter carriers in parts of three states today joined the illegal wage strike begun by New York mailmen. Despite a federal court back-to-work order, indications were the mail tieup would continue in the world's business and financial capital.

Locals of the letter carriers' union in several New Jersey cities, in parts of Westchester, Rockland and Orange counties north of New York City, and in Stamford Conn., voted Wednesday night to walk out. Votes were scheduled in other cities around the nation.

A national embargo ordered at the start of the day-old strike already had diverted tens of millions of pieces of mail addressed to New York to storage bins in post offices around the nation.

The impact of the strike, the first of its magnitude in American postal history, was immediate. It was felt in brokerage houses, banks, businesses and law offices.

Annual Hope Kiwanis Show Is Tonight

Tonight's the night for the 27th showing of the Annual Kiwanis Variety Show to be presented on the stage of the City Hall Auditorium at 8 o'clock.

The Kiwanians have worked hard on tonight's show to make it an hour or two of clean entertainment, and you will surely get your money's worth. It will be worth the price of admission to see some of Hope's well known citizens in the costumes and "get up" they will be wearing in the show, and the speciality acts will be entertainment enough for the money you will spend for your ticket, but be reminded that every ticket sold adds that much to the funds that the Kiwanis Club will be using for their Youth Programs, and for the Golden Age Club.

The Kiwanis Club still has a dream of a new and adequate Youth or Community Center, and this dream will become a reality when sufficient funds are in hand or in sight to assure completion of such a facility. The Kiwanis Club is giving its unqualified support to this program and backing their support with their funds, most of those funds coming from their Annual Variety Shows.

Gets 5 Years on Charge of Embezzeling

OSCEOLA, Ark. (AP) — B. Frank Camp was sentenced Wednesday to five years in prison after being found guilty of embezzling more than $20,000 while assistant administrator of Osceola Memorial Hospital.

A Mississippi County Circuit Court jury deliberated one hour and 45 minutes Wednesday before finding Camp guilty.

Camp was dismissed from the hospital position last August when audits revealed financial irregularities.

Disintegration, Chaos Forseen in Cambodia After Leader's Ouster

By WALTER R. MEARS
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield foresees disintegration and chaos in Cambodia unless Prince Norodom Sihanouk, "the one man in all of his kingdom who can keep it together," returns to power.

"I think he is the most capable in all of Southeast Asia, probably in all Asia," Mansfield said after the Cambodian government ousted Sihanouk Wednesday as chief of state.

While Mansfield says the return of the mercurial neutralist leader would be in the best interests of the United States, he counseled against any American involvement in Cambodia.

"By all means we should stay out of that country and we ought to get out of the rest of South-

Nixon Would Help Poor Students

By FRANK CORMIER
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — Proposing a major reform of federal aid to college students, President Nixon asked Congress today to put even the poorest students on an equal financial footing with those coming from families earning $10,000 a year.

In a special message, the most arresting feature in a series of Nixon-advocated changes would greatly increase dollars available for grants and loans to students from low-income families. He said:

"Every low-income student entering an accredited college would be eligible for a combination of federal grants and subsidized loans sufficient to give him the money to pay as a student from a family earning $10,000."

The administration program would make federally guaranteed loans available to every qualified student, regardless of the income level of his family.

But, the President said, direct "federal subsidies would be directed to students who need them most."

Nixon said the effect of concentrating subsidies in the lower-income brackets would nearly double the actual amount of assistance available to most students with family incomes below $7,500.

And, under his plan, "All eligible students from families of $4,500 annual income would be guaranteed a total of $1,300 each in grants and subsidized loans. This would constitute the financing floor; it will be supplemented by earnings, other scholarships and access to unsubsidized loans."

To justify the proposed shift in emphasis in dispensing federal aid, Nixon said:

"Something is basically unequal about opportunity for higher education when a young person whose family earns more than $15,000 a year is nine times more likely to attend college than a young person whose family earns less than $3,000."

He said it is now time to achieve a long-held national goal that "no qualified student who wants to go to college should be barred by lack of money."

Another Nixon recommendation would create a national student loan association which could purchase student loan paper from banks and other financial institutions, thus making available additional funds for private loans.

Because the association would be privately financed, Nixon said, "this would serve to make more money available for the student loan program, and it would do so at no additional cost to the government."

VIENTIANE (AP) — The North Vietnamese are driving farther south in Laos, with thousands fleeing before them.

Laotian military sources report the North Vietnamese are approaching Long Cheng, headquarters of U.S. supported Laotian guerrillas.

BANGKOK, Thailand (AP) — Cambodian Radio reports members of that nation's National Assembly accused Prince Norodom Sihanouk of corruption, murder, nepotism, and protecting the Viet Cong before they voted to depose him as chief of state. Sihanouk has arrived in Peking to a red carpet treatment indicating continued support from Red China.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield foresees chaos in Cambodia unless Prince Norodom Sihanouk returns to power.

He counseled against U.S. intervention in the situation and rejects suspicions voiced by Senate colleagues that there is secret U.S. involvement in Cambodia that contributed to Sihanouk's ouster.

SAIGON (AP) — The U.S. Command has announced that the commanding general of the U.S. Army's Americal Division and five other persons have been injured, and two men have been killed, in a jungle helicopter crash. The injured are reported in fair to good condition.

NEW YORK (AP) — Letter carriers in parts of New Jersey, Connecticut and New York outside New York City have joined an illegal wage strike begun by city mailmen. A national embargo ordered at the start of the day-old strike has diverted millions of pieces of mail addressed to New York into storage bins.

Cites Flaws in the New Constitution

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Rep. Calvin R. Ledbetter Jr. of Little Rock said Wednesday that Arkansas' 1874 Constitution has many faults, but that above all it lacks flexibility.

"This is demonstrated by the absurdity of having a constitution written in such a way that it is necessary to amend it to allow voting machines or publicly supported kindergartens," Ledbetter told a meeting of the Women's Auxiliary of the Pulaski County Medical Society.

He said the present Constitution is "a creaking relic of Reconstruction which reflects the trials and tribulations of that historical period a century ago."

Many Flee in Laos Before Viet Cong

By GEORGE ESPER
Associated Press Writer

VIENTIANE, Laos (AP) — The North Vietnamese drove farther south in Laos today and more thousands fled before their advance.

Laotian military sources said the North Vietnamese pushed out from the Sam Thong base they captured Wednesday and attacked an outpost five miles north of Long Cheng.

The sources also said the North Vietnamese fired four rockets at Long Cheng, headquarters of Gen. Vang Pao and his 7,000-man guerrilla army of Meo tribesmen which the United States finances, equips and trains. The rockets burned several houses, but no casualties were reported, the informants said.

The sources said as many as 18,000 civilians and soldiers had been evacuated from the Long Cheng area because of the buildup by the North Vietnamese and their Pathet Lao allies.

At the Vientiane airport 80 miles to the south, Air America transport planes unloaded both civilians and soldiers from Long Cheng. Most of the soldiers were in uniform and carrying weapons. Some were wounded but able to walk.

There was no immediate report on whether U.S. Central Intelligence Agency personnel who had been at Long Cheng, had left.

Long Cheng is 10 miles southeast of Sam Thong, and Sam Thong is 15 miles southwest of the Plain of Jars, which the North Vietnamese recaptured in February.

Since the 1962 Geneva agreement that was supposed to make Laos a neutral state,

College Presidents in U.S. Have New Series of Complaints-All Bad

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — Remarks that a college president gets tired of hearing: "There's a delegation of outraged students waiting to see you, sir."

"Your office will be quite shipshape, Dr. Bedrock, as soon as we finish sweeping up the broken window glass."

"Do you teach anything at this place except rebellion?"

"Certainly the board feels you deserve a raise, Dr. Bedrock, but let's look at it realistically. After all, you're already earning more than a master plumber."

"There's a delegation of outraged alumni waiting to see you, sir."

"It was bad enough for them to scatter your confidential files to the winds, Dr. Bedrock, but when they also stole your Phi Beta Kappa key—well, that's really playing dirty pool."

"Good old Cobweb College. No wonder I'm sentimental about it. Some of the best riots of my life were fought here."

Draft Boards Closed to Avoid Trouble

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
As a week-long nationwide anti-draft campaign moved toward an end, Selective Service officials in New York announced that 96 draft boards were being closed today to avoid a confrontation with activists who had pledged to shut them down with nonviolent civil disobedience.

"There is no sense in staying open and letting them do what they want to us," said Maj. William Sangemino, a Selective Service spokesman.

He said the 13 offices which service the 96 boards were expected to reopen Friday.

In California, 10 draft boards in San Francisco and one in San Rafael were closed until next Monday. A spokesman said they were shut after business Tuesday to catch up on work and that it was "sheer coincidence" the closings occurred during a week of demonstrations.

Draft resisters in New York had made plans to try to close Manhattan's draft boards No. 1 through 4.

A War Resisters League leaflet describing the plan said, "A group of people willing to commit civil disobedience will sit down on the pavement in front of the building, obstructing the entrance. If these sit-ins are arrested, another group will take their place."

In Washington, about 400 women marched through a cold rain outside the White House and chanted, "Out of Vietnam, out of Laos."

The members of "Woman's Strike for Peace" wore gags to protest alleged political repression by the Nixon administration. Most had arrived on a special train from New York and Philadelphia.

In Durham, N.C., 60 young demonstrators marched through the rain from the Duke University campus to a downtown draft board office.

Selective Service offices in Austin, Tex., were evacuated briefly after a telephoned bomb threat. No bomb was found.

The draft board in Brooklyn, N.Y., was picketed by 150 persons.

The New Mobilization Committee to End the War in Vietnam is sponsoring the nationwide demonstrations.

Spa Motel Sale Poses a Burden

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP) — The sale of the 350-room Velda Rose Towers and Motel at Hot Springs may place a burden on the city's convention accommodations.

Charles Rixse, manager of the Hot Springs Convention Bureau, said Wednesday that all or parts of 20 conventions would have to be relocated because of the sale of the Velda Rose to the John A. Cooper Co.

Officials of the Cooper firm said the hotel would be used to house persons visiting a planned retirement community near the Garland - Saline county line. The purchase was announced Tuesday.

"We're doing the best we can to relocate all of them after June 15 without losing any conventions," Rixse said. He said his instructions from the new

Highest Paid State Official

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Ohio State University trustees voted unanimously Wednesday to increase President Novice G. Fawcett's annual salary to $50,000 making him the state's highest-paid public official.

Fawcett, president of the university since 1956, had been making $40,000, the same as Gov. James A. Rhodes.

owners of the Velda Rose were "not to plan on anything in the way of convention help."

Rixse said the Cooper firm had indicated that rooms at the Velda Rose may be available during the winter months.

"I think we can coexist with them," Rixse said.

He said, however, that he did not think the development would prevent Hot Springs from continuing to rank as one of the top 20 convention cities in North America.

Youngster Bad News to Drug Pushers

By JAMES D. WHITE
Associated Press Writer
NEWARK, Calif. (AP) — Susan Dusio, 13, is bad news to local drug pushers.

The 4-foot-7, 70-pound eighth grader at MacGregor Junior High School is almost entirely responsible for arranging a week of drug-abuse education that taught 640 teen-agers what the drug scene is all about.

"The response was indescribable," says Vice Principal Kenneth Strange. "She had help, of course, but Susan carried the ball from the very beginning and virtually handled the thing by herself. It wouldn't have happened without her."

The fact that Susan knew some teen-agers on drugs led her to choose that topic for a special report in history class. "A lot of kids smoke, but cigarettes are not as bad as drugs. A lot of kids picked air pollution, but that's not as bad as drugs, so I picked drugs because it's the worst problem."

She sent for some literature and learned that speakers, exhibits and movies were available. Her teachers responded enthusiastically to her suggestion for a week of programs.

"It's important that kids get the right information on drugs, not lies and exaggerations," says Susan, who politely refuses whenever she is offered drugs, usually out of school.

She got on the telephone—to the state Narcotics Bureau in San Francisco, Alameda County authorities, the private Synanon House in Oakland, and to Headway, another volunteer group in Oakland working to stop the spread of drug abuse.

Susan lined up a list of speakers, exhibits, and movies, and a week in March was set aside by the school for the show. Local service clubs and banks chipped in $150 to help with expenses.

At the conclusion of the week of discussions, she was pleased with the results.

"A lot of kids seem to know more now about what it means to take drugs," Susan says. "I think some of them have a different point of view about it now. That's good."

MAILMEN IN (from page one)

striking Manhattan-Bronx local of the AFL-CIO National Association of Letter Carriers, publicly appealed to his men to return to work. The union attorney conceded in court that "the strike is illegal."

But Jack Leventhal, president of the striking Brooklyn local, said the union's constitution required three days notice before a membership meeting to vote on whether to obey the injunction.

That meant the earliest such a vote could be held was Saturday and the decision meanwhile on whether to return was left to the individual workers.

Only about 1 per cent of the 6,000 night shift workers showed up at Manhattan's huge General Post Office, and overnight pickets outside the facility said they were determined to stick it out despite the possibility of federal penalties.

"Who the hell cares" about penalties? asked Martin Rafferty, a 22-year veteran with the post office. "I'm not making enough money to support myself."

"We knew we were in violation of federal law before we went out and we're out to stay," declared Leventhal.

"The men will defy any injunction—they'll stay out until hell freezes over," said Herman Sandbank, executive vice president of the striking union. "If the strike accelerates at the present rate, in 48 hours there will be no mail service in the United States."

At the heart of the dispute is congressional inaction over long-sought pay increases. The mailmen had demanded an annual wage scale of $8,500 to $11,700 to replace the present $6,100 to $8,442.

In Washington, Postmaster General Winton M. Blount said the question of pay increases for postal workers was the responsibility of Congress and there was little his department could do about it.

He ordered the pay of strikers suspended while they are idle, but he said "there's very little that can be physically done" to end the strike when asked about the possibility of using Army or National Guard troops to process the mail.

Blount said both he and President Nixon "are deeply concerned about this situation, since the mail system is the lifeblood of the economy and millions of Americans rely on it for their very survival."

Russia Tests 30 Long Range Missiles

By FRED S. HOFFMAN
AP Military Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Soviet Union has tested more than 30 long range missiles since Strategic Arms Limitation Talks started last November, sources say.

During the same four-month period, the United States has test fired 15 missiles.

This 2-1 Soviet margin in missile testing is one comparison cited by Nixon administration officials challenging recent Russian statements attacking U.S. weapons policies.

In essence, the Soviets have accused the United States of stimulating the arms race, particularly by moving to deploy multiple warhead—MIRV—missiles this June.

Pentagon officials see this as a propaganda campaign aimed at weakening the American position at the upcoming arms talks by playing on U.S. public opinion.

Defense officials said while Russia charges the United States with heating up arms competition, the Soviets are pushing ahead vigorously with their own intercontinental ballistic missile, submarine-launched missile, and antimissile programs.

Sources indicated the 30 or so Soviet missile tests since mid-November have included huge SS-9's, carrying triple warheads, as well as other types of ICBMs.

Among the 15 U.S. test firings were six missiles designed to carry multiple warheads.

U.S. intelligence analysts believe on the basis of Soviet testing the Russians could deploy multiple warheads late this year.

The Russians already have more land-based ICBM launchers than the United States—1,200-plus to 1,054—and are still increasing them, while American forces remain constant.

U.S. intelligence also is watching anxiously an apparent strong Russian effort to catch up with the United States in Polaris type submarines.

According to current intelligence estimates, the Soviet missile submarine program is moving at such a pace the Russians could overtake the United States and exceed the U.S. Polaris fleet of 41 boats in the 1974-75 period—a year earlier than had been forecast.

The Russians also are reportedly bearing down on their anti-missile development, with hard intelligence that the Soviets are testing an improved long-range ABM weapon and expanding their radar coverage.

So far U.S. officials believe the United States is ahead of the Russians in antimissile technology, but there is small optimism this situation will continue for very long.

U.S. authorities have chosen the course of a limited expansion of the Safeguard antimissile system to preserve the U.S. deterrent and are putting off for a year—to gauge progress or lack of progress at the arms talks—any hard decisions on whether to undertake new offensive weapons.

Welfare Dept. Relocated in St. Francis

FORREST CITY, Ark. (AP) — The St. Francis County office of the Welfare Department, subject of a recent controversy, has been relocated in space rented by the Welfare Department.

Until last weekend, the office was located behind the St. Francis County courthouse.

County Judge W. B. "Sonny" Hamilton earlier had ordered the department to vacate the county property. About two weeks ago, Hamilton threatened to padlock the office in a dispute with welfare officials over the treatment of food stamp recipients. The office, however, was not closed.

Welfare Commissioner Len E. Blaylock contended that Hamilton issued the padlock threat in an attempt to persuade Blaylock to dismiss Mrs. Charlene Sykes, a welfare employee. Blaylock said, however, that he had no intention of firing Mrs. Sykes as long as she did her job.
